- The Center can be rented for weddings, receptions, private parties, reunions, meetings, and other functions.
- Scheduling and approval will be handled by the Office Manager or her/his designees.
- A staff member who is familiar with all equipment will open and close the building and be present during the function. The charge for this is $10 per hour.
The Board of Directors or its designees can waive, modify, or add certain fees and requirements as circumstances warrant in the best interests of the Center.
- There will be no rental charge for usage of the Center when it is in memory of or honoring a member in good standing or someone in the member's family.

Fee Schedule & Reserving Space at the Center

- If this is a long-term agreement, deposit will be returned when the agreement ends.

Full payment for rental is due two business days prior to the event.

Liability

1. All rental agreements will include "hold harmless" language.
2. Should it be deemed necessary, a Certificate of Insurance for at least $300,000 (three hundred thousand dollars) in liability coverage will be required.
3. The Center shall not be held responsible for any damage or loss that may occur to non-Center property. The individual or organization using the Center will be held responsible for any damage to the building, facilities, or equipment.

Other

1. Smoking is not allowed in the Center.
2. The Center has the right to deny the use of the facilities if, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, the proposed activities would:
 - a. Jeopardize the building or equipment
 - b. Conflict with regular Center activities.
 - c. Violate local, state, or federal law.
 - d. Present a hazard to the general public
 - e. Be contrary to the best interest of the Center, its mission or its participants
3. The Center may be used for activities such as exercise, yoga, line dancing, etc. Activities such as tap dancing, weight lifting, etc. that could damage the floors is not permitted.
4. If an activity is sponsored, and there is no charge to the Center, there will be no charge for member participation, non-members will need to pay $5.00 per activity.
5. If an individual sponsoring an activity (i.e. line dancing) charges a fee for that activity, each member participating in such activity will pay the applicable fee. Non-members need to pay the applicable fee plus an additional $5.00.

Speakers from for-profit organizations

The Wells Ogunquit Center at Moody will rent space to speakers from for-profit organizations. We will not sponsor these speakers and all our publicity will state that the Center does not in any way endorse the products or services being promoted by said speaker.
